

COVID-19 - UPDATE

2022 CHARTER BOOKING TERMS

With the 2021 charter season having come to an end, we remain more positive and hopeful that the 2022 season will be even better and that we will all be able to enjoy wonderful holidays at sea! In view of the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, we understand the uncertainty caused to our charterers about planning their holiday for 2022, so we have continued with the below terms and conditions. We remain at your disposal for any further assistance and information. Stay safe in the meantime!

FLEXIBLE RESCHEDULING TERMS

Should there be an official travel ban** and no flights due to the COVID-19 pandemic between the charterer's country of residence and Greece, we can offer the following options:

RESCHEDULE*

the charter for a later period in 2022, subject to yacht availability in our fleet.

EXCHANGE

the amount from the existing booking for a credit note to be used for a charter in 2023.

*Please note that if the rescheduled charter booking for 2022 or 2023 is more expensive, the price difference will be charged to the charterer, and if it's less expensive, there is no price difference reimbursement unless in the case of a yacht size downgrade. **If required by the Greek Authorities, failure for the charterer (and his crew) to provide a negative COVID-19 test to enter Greece does not qualify. For all other types of cancellation, our standard terms and conditions apply.

A note regarding availability...

Due to rescheduled bookings from 2021 to 2022, availability for the 2022 season may be less than it would have been under normal pre-COVID-19 circumstances. Don't miss the opportunity to book the specific yacht and period that you wish to have for your next sailing holiday!
