JEANNEAU 64

STYLISH SAILING IN GREECE

sailaegean.eu

Discover the beautiful region of Volos and the Sporades Islands in style and in comfort aboard our impressive Jeanneau 64!

DAY 1 VOLOS - TRIKERI ISLAND 14NM

The first destination as you embark on your wonderful sailing holiday is the charming little harbour of Trikeri Island at the entrance of the Pagasetic Gulf! A delicious evening of excellent fresh fish and local tsipouro with endless seafood appetisers awaits you.

DAY 2 TRIKERI ISLAND - LOUTRAKI 32NM

As you leave the Pagasetic Gulf, with southern Pelion to your left, the ideal sailing winds guide you to the lush little island of Tsougria for that much-anticipated swim-stop in turquoise waters. A short afternoon sail brings you to Loutraki harbour on Skopelos Island. Discover the nearby quaint hilltop village of Glossa, with its stunning views and gastronomic delights.

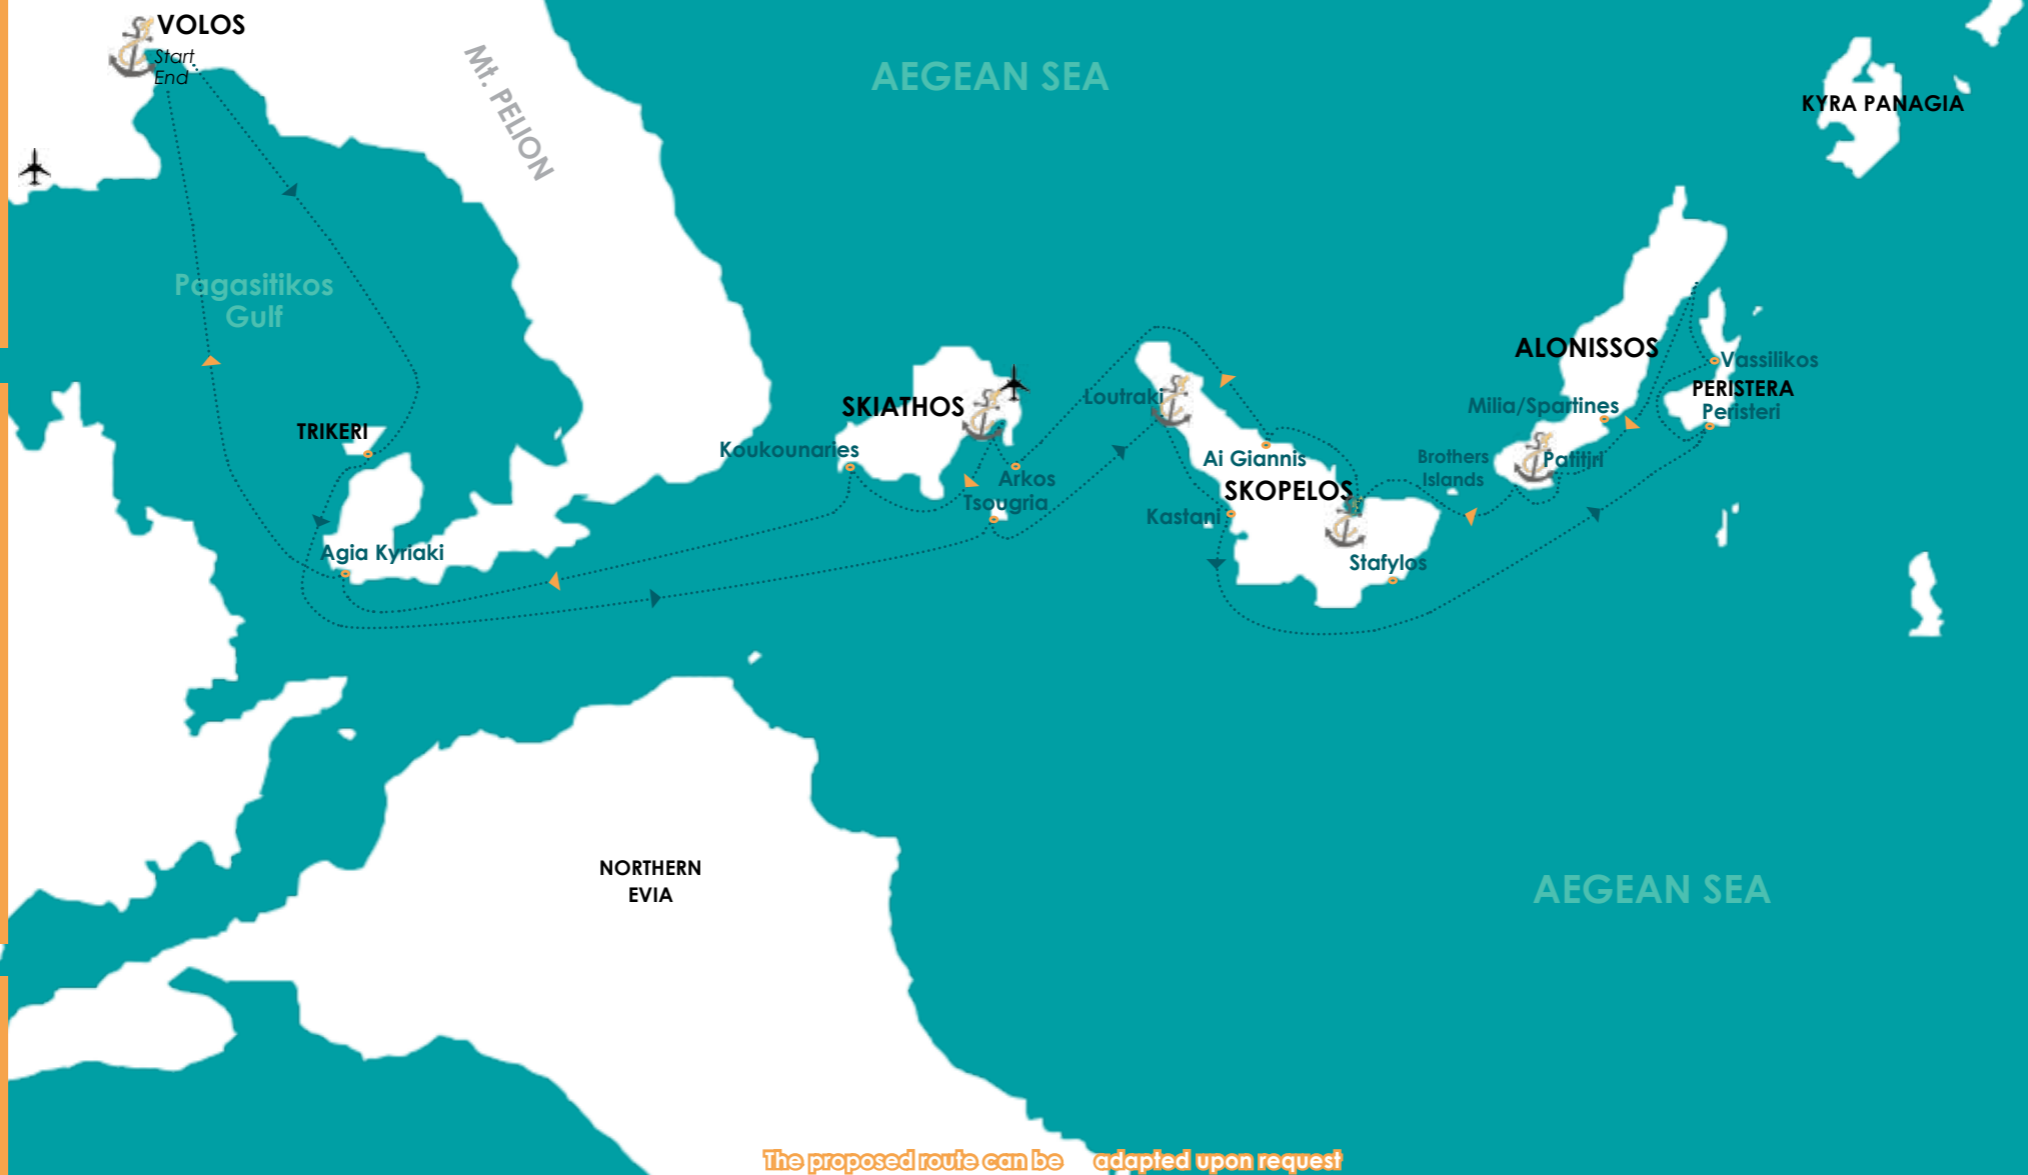

DAY 3 LOUTRAKI - PERISTERA 22NM

As you set off to explore the green paradisaical southern coast of Skopelos, an early swim-stop is a must in the heavenly beaches of Hovolo or Kastani! This can be combined with a scuba diving experience in the surrounding area. Lunch is at Stafylos, a pretty spot ideal also for snorkelling. A late afternoon sail leads you to the tranquil Peristeri bay on the deserted island of Peristera. Time to gaze at the enchanting stary night sky during dinner aboard.

DAY 4 PERISTERA - ALONISSOS 12NM

Anchors aweigh and you head up through the strait between Alonissos and Peristera. Enjoy a refreshing swim-stop by the well-known shipwreck at Vassilikos bay and along the coast of Alonissos before arriving at its port, Patifiri. A short bus ride takes you up to the charming Old Town, for a walk through its cobblestone streets, and to admire the magnificent views and sunset. Prepare to revel in a medley of traditional cheese pies, loukoumades, lobster spaghetti and, of course, the Alonissos tuna.

The proposed route can be adapted upon request

DAY 5 ALONISSOS - SKOPELOS 11NM

A morning scuba diving experience in the Blue Cave or at the small islands known as the Brothers can be arranged or, alternatively, you can simply enjoy a refreshing swim at the beaches of Milia and Spartines. An afternoon sail brings you to the port of Skopelos, where you can lose yourselves in the flower-scented alleyways of the colourful town of Skopelos. You will also find numerous restaurants to taste the local specialties, such as the goat or pork and plum stew.

DAY 6 SKOPELOS - SKIATHOS 17NM

Weather permitting, you will travel to Skiathos along the northern coast of Skopelos. This coast is wilder with rocky shores, but this will allow you to visit the chapel of Ai Giannis (famous for being in the first Mamma Mia movie). You will need to climb about 200 steps, but the view of the endless blue will be totally worth it. Enjoy your last swim of the day on the pretty little island of Arkos, with its characteristic sand dunes, before arriving in the port of Skiathos. You will find an endless choice of boutiques and tourist shops, restaurants and bars for all tastes and ages in the vibrant town of Skiathos.

DAY 7 SKIATHOS - VOLOS 40NM

It's the last day, but don't despair! You still get to bask at one of Skiathos' sandy beaches (like Koukounaries) before returning to Volos. Time permitting, a quick stop is possible in Agia Kyriaki to savour that amazing seafood one last time.
